Re: Michael Szostak
Re Nephew – Alexander Yarosz
England

I telephoned you a few weeks ago and asked what progress you were making regarding my father's nephew Alexander Yarosz, who is located in England.

I wrote to him and received an answer saying that he has been ill an he did receive a letter from the Consuls office but was unable to keep the appointment. He will get in touch with the Consuls office as soon as possible and will let us know.

Also, I heard that the Displaced Persons will be discontinued this June 1951. If you feel that nothing can be done to get my father's nephew to America as a Displaced Person, then try to get him here the next possible way. My father will pay for all expenses, passage, etc

Please keep us informed if you have further news.

Jakiś czas temu oddał mi Pan Michael Szostak sprawę Pana do załatwienia. Mianowicie polecił on mi ażeby starać się i dopomódz Panu o ile to będzie możliwe w ucyskaniu wizy emigracyjnej na wolny przyjazd do Stanów Zjednoczonych. Niech mi Pan napisze i wyśle list pocztą lotniczą czy Pan otrzymał jakiekolwiek dokumenty od Pana Szostak, i jeżeli tak, na którym dniu Pan otrzymał, i na którym dniu i gdzie doręczył Konzulowi Amerykańskiemu. Jest to bowiem sprawa bardzo ważna i te rzeczy wszystkie ja muszę dobrze wiedzieć.

Następnie pragnę poinformować że Pan nie należy do tak zwany "Displaced Persons" kwoty bo do tej kwoty należą tylko Ci wysiedleńcy którzy mieszkają w Niemczech, Austryi, i we Włoszech. Spodziewanem jest że w miesiącu styczniu, lub lutym, Kongress Stanów Zjednoczonych, przyjmie prawo które będzie pokrywało również wysiedleńców tych co mieszkają w Angliji, więc być może że i Pan będzie tym pokryty. Więcej jednakowo informacji prześlę Panu wtenczas gdy otrzymam od Pana list w którym mi Pan opisze swoją sprawę.

Dear Charles:

Re: Michael Szostak
Alexander Yarosz (nephew)

Your letter of June 28th with reference to Mr. Yarosz's case was received this morning.

I talked with the State Department concerning his status under the new Displaced Persons Bill and regret to advise you that, when he left Germany for England, he lost his status as a displaced person. The new bill, I am informed, will affect only those residing in Germany, Austria and Italy. While the regulations have not been fully interpreted, so far as the Visa Division now knows, persons outside of those countries, who previously had a displaced persons status, will lose it, and, in that case, they will have to enter under the regular immigration quota.

I was unable to obtain information with reference to the quotas since the Department has not yet had time to decide exactly how this bill will affect them. However, the Department does expect to have definite, or at least somewhere near definite, information on it sometime during the early part of August, since it will take at least a month to get it straightened out.

I shall try to keep in touch with the Department and obtain, if possible, copies of its interpretation when it is available.

Sincerely yours,

cc for Mr. Szostak

Dear Charles:

Re: Michael Szostak
Alexander Yarosz (nephew)

Your letter of February 5th with reference to Mr. Szostak's desire to have his nephew, Alexander Yarosz, presently residing in England, come to the United States to make his home, was received this morning.

I am very glad to write to the American Consul at Liverpool in an effort to hasten action on Mr. Yarosz's application for a visa, which will permit him to enter the United States.

Because all quotas are chargeable to the country of birth, Mr. Yarosz would have to be admitted under the Polish quota, which is very greatly oversubscribed at the present time. In fact, I have recently been advised by the American Consul at Warsaw that for those who have already registered at the Consulate there will be a waiting period of several years, but I am glad to note that Mr. Szostak has furnished his nephew with the affidavits of support and the necessary substantiating evidence, showing his willingness and ability to take care of his nephew and guaranteeing that Mr. Yarosz will not become a public charge upon our government. Mr. Yarosz should call at the American Consulate which is nearest his place of residence (I note you advise it is Liverpool) as soon as he possibly can, because the s oner he is able to register, the sooner his case will receive attention.

I am writing to that Consul today and shall send you any information I receive from him when it arrives.

May I again stress that I think Mr. Szostak should write immediately to his nephew to register at the Consulate at the earliest possible moment.

For your information, I am enclosing a leaflet prepared by the Department of State, giving general information regarding visas for immigrants.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Charles:

Re: Michael Szostak
Alexander Yarosz(nephew)

Because I have received no reply from the American Consul at Liverpool to my letter of February 7th, relative to Mr. Yarosz's case, I am writing to him again today.

But, in the meantime, I am wondering if there has been any recent development come to your attention with reference to his case.

I might add that the Polish quota remains extremely tight since it is very heavily oversubscribed - so much so that the State Department will not commit itself to any waiting time.

Sincerely yours,

ADDRESS OFFICIAL COMMUNICATIONS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON, D. C.

VD-General

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

GENERAL INFORMATION REGARDING VISAS FOR IMMIGRANTS

1. APPLICATION

An alien desiring to immigrate into the United States should communicate with the nearest American consular office or diplomatic mission and request information regarding the procedure to be followed in applying for an immigration visa.

2. DOCUMENTS TO BE PRESENTED

The applicant must submit in support of his application certain personal documents, if available, such as a birth certificate, police record, prison record and military record, as well as a passport or other travel document.

He must also present to the consular officer evidence to show that his support will be assured in the United States. There are no prescribed forms which must be submitted in this connection, nor does the Department have blank affidavit forms to be used for this purpose.

An applicant who is self-supporting or has means of his own should present evidence of his income, resources and obligations. In the case of an applicant who will depend for support wholly or partially upon relatives or other persons in the United States, each sponsor should furnish a statement in affidavit form to show his financial ability and willingness to contribute to the applicant's support, giving due regard to the sponsor's obligations toward members of his own family and other persons.

The statement of the sponsor should include information regarding his income, resources, obligations and expenses; the plans and arrangements made for the applicant's support; the extent of the obligation to be undertaken; the reasons for desiring to assume the applicant's support in the absence of a direct obligation toward him; and the extent, if any, to which he has contributed to the applicant's support in the past.

Evidence should be submitted to substantiate the statements made by the applicant and/or by the sponsors. This evidence may be in the form of a certified copy or notarized copy of the latest income tax return; an affidavit from an employer showing the employee's salary and the length and permanency of employment; an affidavit from an officer of a bank regarding a depositor's account, showing the date the account was opened, the present balance, and its accumulation by small or lump sum deposits.

3. PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION OF DOCUMENTS

When the documents have been assembled the alien may send them to the consular officer for examination. It cannot be finally determined, however, prior to the applicant's personal appearance at the consular office, whether he will be found qualified to receive a visa.

4. NONQUOTA STATUS

Under the Immigration Act of 1924 nonquota status may be accorded the following alien relatives of an American citizen; a wife (regardless of date of marriage); a husband by marriage prior to July 1, 1932; and unmarried children under 21 years of age. In order to confer such status the citizen relative should execute petition Form I-133 in duplicate and file the completed forms for approval with the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Department of Justice, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where the forms may be obtained. If the citizen relative is abroad, he may obtain the forms from an American consular office.

Nonquota status is also provided in Section 4 of the Act of 1924 for the following classes: An alien previously lawfully admitted into the United States who is returning after a temporary absence abroad; applicants born in Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Cuba, or an independent country of Central or South America and their wives and unmarried children under 18 years of age, if accompanying or following to join them; ministers of religious denominations and professors of academies, colleges and universities and their wives and unmarried children under 18 years of age; bona fide students at least 15 years of age who are coming to the United States solely to study at an accredited institution of learning approved by the Attorney General; and, a woman citizen of the United States who lost her citizenship by reason of marriage to an alien, or the loss of citizenship by her husband or by marriage to an alien and residence in a foreign country.

5. PREFERENCE STATUS

Under Section 6 of the Act of 1924 preference status may be accorded to the alien husband of an American citizen by marriage on or after July 1, 1932 and to the parents of an American citizen twenty-one years of age or over. The procedure in conferring such status is similar to that outlined in paragraph (4) regarding the filing of petition Form I-133, which forms may be obtained from the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Preference status is also provided for skilled agriculturists and for the alien wife and unmarried minor children of an alien lawfully admitted into the United States for permanent residence. In cases falling within the latter category, the alien resident should file Form I-475, obtainable from the immigration authorities of the United States, for the purpose of having his lawful entry verified.

6. EMPLOYMENT

Applicants coming to employment in the United States should clearly set forth the facts in order that the consular officer may determine whether the case comes within the contract labor provisions of the law.

7. REFUSAL OF A VISA

Section 23 of the Immigration Act of 1924 places upon an alien who attempts to enter the United States the burden of establishing that he is not subject to exclusion under any provision of the immigration laws.

8. Any information desired regarding the status of an individual visa case should be requested of the consular officer concerned.

Dear Mr Furtak,

I am sending you two letters which my father received:

1. From Polish Immigration Committee
2. From Alexis Yarosh - note new address.

Please let us know what you think about the cancellation. We think an error was made as to where Alexis Yarosh surrendered his papers, to the Ukranian Consulate in London instead of American Consulate in Liverpool. In February 1948 I wrote to Alexis Yarosz and told him to register with American Consulate in Liverpool. I believe he did. Can this be straightened out?

Yours truly,
Michael Szostak

I believe you will find Mr. Muddleston's letter self-explanatory.

The Honorable
John W. Heselton
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C.

My dear Mr. Heselton:

Reference is made to your letter of April 28th, 1948, concerning the immigration visa application of Mr. Alexander Yarosz.

According to the records of the Consulate, Mr. Yarosz made his preliminary application for an immigration visa on February 28, 1948. It further appears that he is chargeable to the nonpreference portion of the Polish quota, which is oversubscribed at present. Because of the large number of persons chargeable to the Polish quota who have registered at American consular offices, a waiting period of several years is to be expected before his turn is reached.

Although it is regretted that this office is not able to process Mr. Yarosz's application any further at present, you may be assured that it is receiving, and will receive, every consideration consistent with the immigration laws and regulations.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ J. F. Huddleston

Mr. Felix Furtek,

Sir:

The receipt is acknowledged of your letter of April 4, 1952 concerning the immigration visa application of Mr. Alexander YAROSZ.

Very truly yours,

Form LV-1(B)

AMERICAN CONSULATE,
LIVERPOOL, ENGLAND.

YOU ARE ADVISED THAT AN AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT WHICH IS MORE THAN ONE YEAR OLD IS NO LONGER VALID.

HOME AND JOB ASSURANCES ARE NOT ACCEPTABLE AS EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT

No alien who is likely to become a public charge may be admitted to the United States. Each applicant for an immigration visa must present clear and convincing evidence that he will have adequate means of support for possibly a prolonged period after his arrival in the United States.

An applicant proceeding to the United States must present an affidavit, in duplicate, executed by a sponsor guaranteeing support of the applicant. Affidavits of support from sponsors in the United States should cover the following points:-

(1) The name and address of the sponsor and a statement of his exact relationship, if any, to the applicant.

(2) The citizenship of the sponsor. If the sponsor is an American citizen he should state how he acquired his citizenship. A naturalized American citizen should state the time and place of naturalization, the name of the court in which he was naturalized, and the number of his naturalization certificate. If he is an alien resident, he should supply the name of the port at which he arrived and the date of his legal admission into the United States as well as the name of the ship in which he arrived at that port. This statement must be corroborated by completing Form I-475, which can be obtained from the branch office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service nearest his home.

(3) The monthly or yearly income of the sponsor, which must be supported by corroborative evidence in the form of a statement made by his employer or a recent income-tax return.

(4) Amount of present bank deposit, substantiated by a sworn statement made by an officer of the bank showing the date the account was opened, the present balance, and its accumulation by small or lump-sum deposits.

(5) Market value of other property, including stocks, bonds or real-estate. If there is an encumbrance on the real-estate the amount should be stated. This evidence should be support by copies of real-estate tax receipts.

(6) A list of dependents of the sponsor, showing the age and sex of each.

(7) An assurance that the sponsor is able and willing to support the applicant for as long a time as necessary, and a solemn guarantee that he will not permit the applicant to become a public charge if admitted to the United States.

(8) If the sponsor and the applicant are engaged to be married, the affidavit should contain a solemn declaration of intent to wed upon the applicant's arrival in the United States.

(9) A person in the United States sponsoring an applicant whom he is under no moral or legal obligation to support should outline the plans being made for the applicant's economic assistance upon his arrival in the United States. The sponsor should also state his reasons for undertaking the burden of the applicant's support in the absence of any legal or moral obligation. Moreover, the sponsor should give the names and addresses and the economic condition of any other applicants whom he has agreed to assist in a similar manner.

IT IS SUGGESTED THAT THIS INFORMATION SHEET BE SENT TO YOUR SPONSOR.
